

Green burial allows families who are climate conscious to make environmentally friendly decisions about after-death care and burial. At Guare & Sons we understand that working with a funeral director helps families feel confident in the choices they make about products and services. We are proud to offer green burial caskets and shrouds that meet the highest standards for green burial, as well as service packages that serve the needs of families interested in green burial.

If you are interested in learning more about green burial please give us a call. We are happy to meet with to discuss green burial, our service options, and how you can plan for ahead for a green burial with us.
